The Property
Perched on a scenic hillside just two kilometres from the charming village of Capalbio, Property 10285 is an elegant stone-built residence that embodies the timeless beauty of the Tuscan Maremma. Built in the 1960s and fully renovated, the villa retains its original character while offering refined comforts and a unique sense of charm. The villa is set within a beautifully tiered garden of approximately 6,000 square metres, filled with Mediterranean trees and fragrant fruit plants—holm oaks, cork oaks, olive trees, pines, and cypresses. From this elevated position, guests can enjoy breathtaking views that stretch from the medieval rooftops of Capalbio to the Argentario Sea, with the silhouettes of Ansedonia and Giannutri on the horizon and the shimmering waters of Lake Burano below.

At the highest point of the garden lies a spectacular infinity pool (16 x 8 m), complete with its own changing room and bathroom.
