Set in the heart of Salento, Property 1708344440 enjoys a privileged position in the peaceful village of Depressa, a hidden gem that offers the perfect balance between authenticity and accessibility. Surrounded by olive groves, dry-stone walls and the timeless charm of the Apulian countryside, this exclusive villa is ideally situated for exploring the region's most celebrated attractions: from the baroque beauty of Lecce to the crystalline beaches of both the Adriatic and Ionian coasts.

Muro Leccese is a charming town located in the heart of the Salento region of Puglia, known for its rich history, beautiful architecture, and traditional atmosphere. Steeped in culture, the town boasts narrow streets lined with white-washed buildings and impressive baroque-style churches, such as the Church of Saint Nicholas. Muro Leccese is also renowned for its proximity to both the Adriatic and Ionian coasts, offering easy access to stunning beaches and crystal-clear waters.

Santa Maria di Leuca and Gallipoli are two of Salento's most charming spots. Santa Maria di Leuca, at the southernmost tip of Puglia, offers stunning coastal views, beautiful beaches, and its iconic lighthouse. Its whitewashed buildings and clear blue waters create a magical atmosphere. Nearby, Gallipoli delights with its historic old town, narrow streets, and ancient castle, all surrounded by blue waters. Both destinations are perfect for history, culture, and seaside beauty.

Located at the easternmost point of Italy and known for its stunning beaches, crystal-clear waters, and charming old town, Otranto is a popular destination for visitors seeking both history and natural beauty. The town is famous for its impressive 11th-century cathedral, which houses a remarkable mosaic floor, as well as the imposing Aragonese Castle that overlooks the harbour. Otranto's historic centre is a labyrinth of narrow, cobbled streets lined with whitewashed houses, lively cafés, and boutiques.
