Surrounded by the iconic cliffside scenery and colourful buildings cascading down to the sparkling Mediterranean, the villa offers a peaceful retreat while keeping the heart of Positano within easy reach. A pleasant 10-minute walk takes you to the centre, where charming boutiques, excellent restaurants, and lively piazzas await.

Perched dramatically on the cliffs of the Amalfi Coast, Positano is one of Italy's most enchanting villages. Famous for its colourful cascade of houses, narrow winding streets, and breathtaking views over the turquoise Mediterranean, it captivates visitors with its unique charm. Every corner reveals picturesque scenes, from charming boutiques and artisan shops to quaint cafés and lively piazzas, offering a perfect blend of culture, style, and authentic Italian life.

The village's stunning coastline is lined with pebbled beaches and crystal-clear, shimmering waters, ideal for sunbathing, swimming, or simply taking in the breathtaking views. Renowned restaurants serve fresh, locally sourced seafood and traditional Italian cuisine, while bustling local markets offer vibrant colours, flavours, and intoxicating aromas. Positano's magical, romantic atmosphere, combined with its dramatic cliffside setting and rich cultural heritage, ensures an unforgettable experience for every visitor.

Beyond Positano, the Amalfi Coast unfolds a series of equally captivating towns and landscapes. Nearby villages such as Praiano, Amalfi, and Ravello are known for their historic architecture, charming streets, and stunning viewpoints. Verdant hillsides dotted with lemon groves and olive trees, dramatic cliffs plunging into the sea, and peaceful walking trails make the surrounding area perfect for exploration. Each place has its own charm, from Ravello's famous gardens and panoramic terraces to Amalfi's historic cathedral.

The Torre itself dates to the 13th century and is recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site. With its position above Tramontana Apartment, Libeccio Apartment enjoys a serene atmosphere and magnificent views of Positano's main beach.
