From here, you can easily reach the picturesque town of Pienza, also known as "the ideal city of Renaissance", and the medieval town of Montepulciano: standing high atop a hill not far from Siena, the town boasts elegant Renaissance palaces, ancient churches, charming squares and breathtaking views over the wonderful Val d'Orcia.

Effectively a giant, open-air museum celebrating the Gothic, Siena boasts spiritual and secular monuments that have retained both their medieval forms and their exceptional art collections, providing plenty to marvel at.

Full of naturalistic wonders and artistic treasures, Tuscany is also renowned for its natural springs, whose waters, after having carved the rocks, flow aboveground and create natural pools in which you can restore your psychophysical balance. Known for its millenary natural springs, San Casciano dei Bagni boasts a luxurious spa center enhanced by a flourishing natural setting. The villa is also a few kilometers from Chianciano Terme, one of the most famous thermal bath towns in Europe, whose waters are popular for their therapeutic properties.
