This exclusive six-bedroom property is perfectly positioned for exploring the area's beautiful beaches and crystal-clear waters. The coastal scenery is splendid, featuring a rocky landscape dotted with dense and aromatic Mediterranean scrub.

Porto Cervo, created by Prince Aga Khan and other investors, is the main hub of Costa Smeralda and is renowned as the capital of this part of Sardinia. This glamorous area attracts celebrities and boasts an array of nightclubs, fashion boutiques, and marinas lined with yachts. For beach enthusiasts, Grande Pevero Beach and Piccolo Pevero Beach are renowned for their exceptionally clear waters.

A few kilometres south of Porto Cervo lies the bay of Cala di Volpe, home to some of Italy's most exclusive hotels and the eighteen-hole Pévero Golf Course, set across a rolling expanse of green. Nearby beaches include Capriccioli and Romazzino, which face the offshore islands of Soffi and Mortorio, and the smaller Spiaggia del Principe, believed to be named after the Aga Khan. To the south of Cala di Volpe, Liscia Ruja is the largest beach on the Costa Smeralda.

Built in 1963 following the development of Costa Smeralda, Porto Rotondo features rows of orange villas cascading over the scrub-covered hills. The central Piazzetta San Marco is lined with chic boutiques and fashion shops, leading up to the modern granite church of San Lorenzo and an open-air theatre that hosts summer entertainments. The area also offers convenient access to numerous beaches.

Property 1605885698 is approximately 30 km from Olbia Costa Smeralda Airport, 1.5 km from Golfo Pevero, 3 km from Porto Cervo, 5 km from Pévero Golf Course, 7 km from Capriccioli, 8 km from Romazzino, and 25 km from Porto Rotondo. The villa is situated between Pantogia and Golfo Pevero.
