With its tranquil location, many of Rome's most famous attractions are within easy reach, just a short taxi ride away. While it would take weeks to see all that the city has to offer, a few days is enough to explore its most beautiful sites.

This exclusive property is just a few kilometres from Palatine Hill and the Roman Forum, the ancient centre of civil and religious life in the city. The well-preserved ruins make it a memorable attraction for many visitors to Rome. The Trevi Fountain, the world's most famous fountain, is a Baroque masterpiece featuring tritons, winged horses, and drinking snakes, with its waters glittering with the thousands of coins tossed by tourists.

The Colosseum, the largest amphitheatre ever built and a powerful symbol of Imperial Rome, is unmissable. The amphitheatre, which once hosted gladiatorial combats and wild beast shows, now offers an extended visitor route through the underground passageways. The villa is also a few kilometres from the Pantheon, Rome's best-preserved ancient temple, which is a must-see for any first-time visitor.

From here, head to Piazza Navona, a stunning square featuring Bernini's famous fountain and a popular gathering spot with its bustling cafés and seasonal fairgrounds. The villa is also just a few kilometres from the Sistine Chapel and the Vatican Museums, filled with Roman sculptures and sarcophagi—top destinations on any visitor's bucket list. No visit to Rome is complete without seeing St. Peter's Square and St. Peter's Basilica, one of the largest churches ever built.
