DESCRIPTION

Property 10391 - SANT'AGATA SUI DUE GOLFI

6 Bedrooms

Location and Surrounding Area
Located near the heart of Sorrento, this elegant six-bedroom villa is the perfect place for a stylish break on one of the most famous stretches of coastline in the Mediterranean. With a spectacular cliff-top setting facing Mount Vesuvius across the Bay of Naples, it is no wonder that Sorrento is a must-visit destination on everyone's bucket list. The ancient town centre is laid out on a Roman grid of narrow lanes, now lined with exclusive restaurants serving gnocchi and shops selling lemon-themed souvenirs.

Away from the well-worn paths are little-explored nooks and crannies. The vaulted Sedile Dominova, once a meeting space for the aristocracy, is now a working men's club where old-timers while away afternoons playing cards. There are also traditional greengrocers and haberdashers huddled behind wooden shop fronts, medieval palaces along Via Pietà, the magnificent courtyard of Palazzo Correale, and artisan workshops producing the same wood intarsia for which the town became famous in the 18th century.

If Sorrento becomes overwhelming, the laid-back town of Vico Equense, which stands on a sheer tufa cliff just along the coast, makes an attractive base. Beachgoers tend to head for the small pockets of sand tucked into coves at Marina di Vico and Marina d'Aequa, while walkers tackle the old footpath to Positano, clinging to the cliffs along the Amalfi coastline. Culture enthusiasts can hop on the Circumvesuviana train to explore the ancient sites of Pompeii and Herculaneum, destroyed by the eruption of Vesuvius.

Set in the hills just below the ridge that divides Sorrento from the sheer southern coastline lies the village of Sant'Agata Sui Due Golfi, named for its views over both the Gulf of Naples and the Gulf of Salerno. To the west and south-west of Sorrento is a hilly hinterland, the sprawling Massa Lubrense, which boasts a wild stretch of coast that developers have left untouched. Massa Lubrense is home to hamlets and ancient lookout towers, reminders of repeated invasions over the centuries, surrounded by citrus and olive groves.

With its maze of streets and staircases, Amalfi is a town best explored on foot. While Piazza Duomo and the main street host most of the town's shops and restaurants, do spend some time wandering and exploring the quieter side streets, where you will find arched passageways, hidden gardens, and tiny piazzas. Sitting high in the hills above Amalfi, Ravello is famous for its stunning gardens and stupendous views, deemed the best in the world by former resident Gore Vidal.
