A pleasant 10-minute walk takes you to the centre, where charming boutiques, excellent restaurants, and lively piazzas await.

Perched dramatically on the cliffs of the Amalfi Coast, Positano is one of Italy's most enchanting villages. Famous for its colourful cascade of houses, narrow winding streets, and breathtaking views over the turquoise Mediterranean, it captivates visitors with its unique charm. Every corner reveals picturesque scenes, from charming boutiques and artisan shops to quaint cafés and lively piazzas, offering a perfect blend of culture, style, and authentic Italian life.

The village's stunning coastline is lined with pebbled beaches and crystal-clear, shimmering waters, ideal for sunbathing, swimming, or simply taking in the breathtaking views. Renowned restaurants serve fresh, locally sourced seafood and traditional Italian cuisine, while bustling local markets offer vibrant colours, flavours, and intoxicating aromas.
