With over 300 sqm of internal living space spread across two floors, this exquisite villa combines historical charm with modern sophistication, creating an atmosphere of serene luxury that invites you to slow down and savour the rhythm of life in Puglia. Property 10541 accommodates up to 8 guests across 4 uniquely styled double bedrooms, each offering a haven of peace, light, and harmony.

The beauty of the masseria truly comes alive outdoors, where every corner is designed to be experienced. Wander barefoot across lush lawns, breathe in the scent of the earth, and lose yourself in the slow cadence of daily life beneath centuries-old olive and oak trees and fruit orchards. The outdoor spaces offer a variety of experiences: an infinity saltwater pool with multiple levels from shallow entry to a depth of 245 cm, a paved area with loungers, and an external patio with dining area, kitchen, and stone barbecue.

The villa’s historic courtyard, once at the service of the estate’s steward, now serves as an exclusive social space, perfect for leisurely spring afternoons or cool summer evenings spent with family and friends. A XVII-century stone pizza oven invites you to prepare fresh recipes using organic produce from the garden, to be enjoyed under a charming grape pergola. A second dining area, also crafted in stone, complements the poolside experience, offering an inviting setting for al fresco meals throughout the day.

The interiors blend authentic historical character with contemporary design.
