Renowned for its whitewashed towns, excellent cuisine, dramatic coastal cliffs, and beautiful beaches, this area of Southern Apulia has all the ingredients for the perfect holiday.

The villa is just a few kilometres from Cisternino, often listed among the most beautiful towns in Italy. After visiting the historic Chiesa di San Nicola, you can enjoy charming views of the countryside from Piazza Garibaldi and the Torre Civica. The villa is also a short distance from Martina Franca, the largest town in the Valle d'Itria. Situated in the heart of the valley, Martina Franca is a perfect base for exploring the region, but make sure to spend some time wandering through its historic centre.

The old town radiates out from the 19th-century neoclassical Chiesa Madre San Giorgio, dedicated to the town's patron saint. Its elevated position offers views of the surrounding countryside, and once there, you will be treated to breathtaking panoramas of the Valle d'Itria.

Masseria La Residenza di Savelletri Piccola is also a few kilometres from Alberobello, the most famous town in the Valle d'Itria, renowned for its iconic trulli houses. The conical rooftops, cobblestone streets, and whitewashed houses create an enchanting atmosphere. The villa is likewise close to Ostuni, known as the "White City." With its ancient cobbled streets, impressive churches, and charming whitewashed houses, Ostuni boasts a rich history dating back to the Stone Age.

Masseria La Residenza di Savelletri Piccola is 57 km from Brindisi Airport (also known as Salento Airport) and 79 km from Bari Karol Wojtyła International Airport.
