DESCRIPTION

Property 1557152270 – CORTINA D'AMPEZZO

6 Bedrooms

Location and Surrounding Area
Surrounded by the majestic peaks of the Dolomites, this exclusive six-bedroom chalet is perfectly located in Cortina, a paradise for lovers of Alpine sports, not only because of its ski stations, but also thanks to the opportunities to practise Nordic walking, climbing via ferrata and mountaineering. Above all, once the snow has melted away, it becomes the ideal destination for those who wish to enjoy mountain bike excursions along the Long Route of the Dolomites, one of the most spectacular cycling routes in Italy.

A via ferrata, literally an "iron path," is an equipped climbing route leading to a summit, fitted with cables, chains, rungs, bridges and other fixed anchor points such as ladders or wooden walkways. For experienced hikers, tackling a via ferrata is often at the top of their wish list, and nowhere compares with the Dolomites in terms of the number and sheer beauty of these equipped paths. There are 15,560 metres of equipped paths and vie ferrate to explore, provided you are equipped with the appropriate gear.

Cortina also offers more than 400 kilometres of signposted footpaths and hiking trails crossing meadows and forests, mountain lodges, and Alpine lakes. There are routes of varying difficulty and length, making Cortina an ideal destination both for well-trained hikers and for those who wish to enjoy peaceful walks while admiring breathtaking views. Another way to explore the nature of Cortina is to hike in the Natural Park of the Ampezzo Dolomites, rich in diverse habitats and landscapes.

Mountain bike enthusiasts particularly appreciate Cortina d'Ampezzo, where fun and excitement are guaranteed thanks to at least 16 biking trails suitable for families and MTB lovers alike. For those passionate about downhill biking, a Bike Pass allows bikes to travel uphill on lift facilities. After demanding ascents along the via ferrata routes, experience the thrill of adrenaline-fuelled freeride descents by mountain bike. Feel the satisfaction of conquering the summit before enjoying the speed of the descent.
