

Property 1637597785

Number of beds: 16
Bedrooms: 8

Bathrobes and Slippers
Provided for each guest.

Accessibility for people with reduced mobility

Accessibility for people with disabilities

Pets Allowed
Only one small pet is allowed.

Air Conditioning Throughout
Included in the price.

Air Conditioning In The Bedrooms
Included in the price.

Hair Dryer In The Bathrooms

Safe
Safe in all bedrooms.

Crib

Available For Events
Maximum number of guests: 50.

Stereo system and DVD

Minibar and tea or coffee making facilities
Mini-bar only in all rooms.

Internet in the garden and common areas

Located in a quiet area and suitable for yoga retreats

Close to a vineyard or winery

Several wineries nearby, some of which are less than 200 metres away.

The maximum distance from the city centre is 1.5 km
The villa is located in the historic centre of Manduria.

Dishwasher

Washing Machine

Mattress sizes and bed dimensions
8 double bedrooms (beds 180x200), three of which with divisible beds.

Bath amenities
Refills are provided during the week.

Butler

Nearby
The villa is located in the historic centre of Manduria, where restaurants, bars, and all essential services can be found.

Parking Space
The parking is outdoor, within the property, and can accommodate up to 6 cars. Included in the price.

Swimming Pool
Saltwater swimming pool with Jacuzzi area.80 sqm.Depth: 1.50 m.The Jacuzzi corner is located in a semi-separate area, connected to the pool by a small footbridge.

Heating
Included in the price.

Concierge Service
Concierge service is available 24/7, as is the reception. Upon request, and with a specific quotation, various services are available.

Housekeeping
Daily housekeeping (Monday to Saturday, 5 hours per day). Included in the price.

Smart TV

Mattress topper

Satellite TV

City Views

Wi-Fi

 Please note: the included amenities may vary according to final agreement, make sure to check your contract for complete list.

NEARBIES

Palazzo Manduria is 34 km from Taranto-Grottaglie Airport, 49 km from Brindisi–Salento Airport, and 156 km from Bari Karol Wojty?a Airport. The property is just 1 km from Manduria (just 450 m on foot), 29 km from Porto Cesareo, 42 km from Ostuni, 48 km from Martina Franca, 49 km from Taranto, 49 km from Lecce, 57 km from Gallipoli, 64 km from Alberobello, and 97 km from Otranto.

FEATURES

- 8 Suites (Twin or Double Configuration Available in Some Suites)
- 8 En-Suite Bathrooms + 2 Guest Bathrooms
- Saltwater Swimming Pool with Jacuzzi
- Poolside Area
- Loggia for Breakfast
- Panoramic Terrace for Breakfast
- Frescoed Dining Hall
- Interior Salons with Neoclassical Frescoes
- Heritage Suite Lounge with Vaulted Ceilings and Bas-Reliefs
- Study Corners in Suites
- 4,000 m² Historic English-style Gardens
- English Rose Garden
- Centuries-old Oak Trees (Dating Back to 1880)
- Oak Woodland Area
- Romantic Pathways and Landscaped Lawns
- Mediterranean Flora (Jasmine, Seasonal Flowers)
- Decorative Grottos
- Informal Romantic Landscaped Areas
- Outdoor Terraces
- Relaxation Corners with Coffee and Herbal Teas
- Selection of Towels (Cotton or Linen)
- Selection of Pillows (High or Low)
- In-room Safe
- Outdoor Showers

DESCRIPTION

Property 1637597785 – MANDURIA

8 Bedrooms

Location and Surrounding Area
Property 1637597785 enjoys a truly enchanting setting in the heart of Manduria. Here, vineyards and ancient olive groves blend gently into the edges of the historic town, creating a peaceful transition between countryside and urban charm. In the distance, the Ionian Sea traces a soft line on the horizon, adding a touch of light. Secluded yet well connected to the cultural richness of the Salento region, the palace offers a quiet retreat immersed in nature, history, and the timeless atmosphere of southern Italy.

The palace is set on the edge of Manduria, a town celebrated for its ancient Messapian heritage and its deep connection to wine culture. This is the homeland of the renowned Primitivo di Manduria, whose vineyards stretch across the sun-drenched landscape, shaping a scenery of rolling vines and silver-leaved olive trees. Wandering through the old town, visitors discover stone-built streets, hidden courtyards, and a timeless atmosphere where Southern Italian traditions are still beautifully preserved.

Beyond Manduria lies the wider region of Salento, one of the most evocative corners of southern Italy, where culture, architecture, and coastline come together in perfect harmony. The baroque splendour of Lecce, often called the “Florence of the South”, offers ornate churches and golden-hued palazzi, while nearby coastal gems such as Otranto and Gallipoli reveal crystal-clear waters and historic harbours. This is a land where every town tells a story, shaped by centuries of Mediterranean influences and artistic heritage.

The surrounding coastline is equally captivating, with both the Ionian and Adriatic seas within easy reach. Soft sandy beaches, hidden coves, and protected natural areas offer endless opportunities for relaxation and exploration. The Ionian coast, in particular, is known for its calm turquoise waters and long, unspoilt stretches of sand, where the rhythm of life slows to the gentle sound of the sea. It is a landscape that invites long, unhurried days by the water, framed by light, wind, and the unmistakable beauty of southern Italy.

Property 1637597785 is 34 km from Taranto-Grottaglie Airport, 49 km from Brindisi–Salento Airport, and 156 km from Bari Karol Wojty?a Airport. The property is just 1 km from Manduria (just 450 m on foot), 29 km from Porto Cesareo, 42 km from Ostuni, 48 km from Martina Franca, 49 km from Taranto, 49 km from Lecce, 57 km from Gallipoli, 64 km from Alberobello, and 97 km from Otranto.

The Property
Nestled where the vineyards and olive groves of Apulia gently give way to the winding streets of Manduria, and watched over by the distant arc of a crystalline sea, stands Property 1637597785, a noble 19th-century residence of extraordinary charm. Built in 1881 to celebrate the wedding of the young Countess Sabini di Altamura and Don Tommaso Schiavoni-Tafuri, the palace today blends authentic Apulian hospitality with an international sensibility. The property accommodates up to 16 guests across 8 refined suites.

The estate unfolds across approximately 4,000 m² of romantic English-style gardens, where Mediterranean essences drift through pathways lined with roses, jasmine, and centuries-old oaks dating back to 1880. The landscape evolves naturally into a wooded grove of oaks, evoking a sense of serenity, while elegant terraces open onto the verdant scenery. Outdoor life here is elevated by a saltwater swimming pool immersed in greenery, offering a truly secluded and tranquil retreat.

Inside, the palace reveals its aristocratic soul through frescoed ceilings, neoclassical ornamentation, and rooms where antique furnishings meet refined contemporary design in perfect equilibrium. The atmosphere is curated according to the ancient principles of Feng Shui, ensuring harmony between architecture, nature, and comfort. This balance of eras and aesthetics transforms each space into an intimate yet majestic retreat, where history is not merely preserved but gracefully lived.

Within its storied walls, neoclassical frescoes, finely decorated rooms, and period furnishings create a dialogue between centuries of family history and the subtle wisdom of Feng Shui, shaping a stay that feels both rooted and transcendent. The palace's eight suites each offer a distinctive interpretation of elegance, all featuring en-suite bathrooms and consistent high standards of comfort, differing only in size (ranging from 25 to 35 m²) and character.

Located on the first floor, the Heritage Suite (32 m²) boasts pastoral ceiling frescoes and wall decorations that evoke centuries of noble storytelling. The adjoining lounge reveals vaulted ceilings adorned with antique bas-reliefs. The Colonial Suite (35 m²) is draped in silks and velvets in silver and azure tones, featuring a panoramic Saint-Jean wallpaper depicting an 18th-century landscape. A sculptural bathtub placed at the centre of the room completes its -chic aesthetic.

The Black Wine Suite (32 m²) channels the timeless glamour of Art Deco and the Roaring Twenties. Upholstered in silks and velvets in grey and gold tones, it offers a sophisticated retro atmosphere. It includes a French-style double bathroom and can be configured with either a double bed or twin beds. The Art Deco Suite (34 m²) is inspired by the elegance of the 1930s and boasts beige, gold, and silver tones. Guests benefit from a safe, study corner, relaxation area with coffee and herbal teas, and shower.

The Bohemian Suite (32 m²) embraces a chic boho spirit in green and orange hues, enriched with silk and velvet furnishings. It features an antique family canopy bed or twin configuration, and en-suite bathroom with shower. This suite can communicate with Gipsy Suite upon request. The Gipsy Suite (29 m²) blends beige and orange tones with antique furnishings from the family dowry. It offers a spacious bathroom with bathtub, shower, and double washbasin. Like its counterpart, it can also be configured as twin beds.

The remaining rooms at Property 1637597785 further enrich the residence's refined collection of accommodations. The Terrace Suite (28 m²) is located on the first floor and features a double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom with shower, complemented by a private terrace. The Country Suite (28 m²) is dressed in soft, pastel tones and carries a gentle, nostalgic charm, with garden views and a double bed. Its cosy bathroom includes both a bathtub and a walk-in shower, creating an inviting balance between comfort and understated rural elegance.

At Property 1637597785, breakfast is far more than a meal, it is an experience in itself. Served in three enchanting settings, the loggia, the terrace, and the frescoed dining hall, it unfolds against breathtaking views and is composed of an abundant selection of organic, locally sourced sweet and savoury delicacies. The palace's dining experience is equally evocative: the Contessa's table becomes a living canvas of Apulian colours and flavours. Please note: the main building is accessible to guests with disabilities, whereas the garden is not accessible.

PHOTOS

