DESCRIPTION

Property 1651263718 - SCOPETI

7 Suites

Location and Surrounding Area
Nestled in the peaceful Tuscan countryside, this magnificent, masterfully restored villa is ideally located for exploring the region's cultural highlights and most spectacular natural wonders. With wonderful views of the surrounding landscape, this exclusive seven-suite property is the perfect base for unforgettable day trips to Tuscany's most beautiful towns, offering a unique opportunity to admire its splendid scenery while immersing yourself in the region's incredibly rich historical and cultural heritage.

In just thirty minutes by car, you can reach Florence, a treasure trove of art with a vibrant contemporary atmosphere. Beyond its extraordinary artistic heritage, a testament to centuries of civilisation, the best way to enjoy Florence is to stroll along the riverside avenues at sunset, or lose yourself in the city's myriad alleyways in the bohemian Oltrarno or the narrow streets of San Niccolò, where you can feel as though you have stepped back in time along the centuries-old walls.

In one hour by car, you can reach San Gimignano, one of Italy's best-preserved medieval towns. As you crest the nearby hills, the fourteen towers rise like a medieval Manhattan. Today, not even the plague could deter the swarms of summer day-trippers, lured by a palpable sense of history and the enchanting rural setting. The historic centre is a UNESCO World Heritage site, and wandering its streets will make you feel as though you've travelled back in time.

The villa is also just a few kilometres from the medieval town of Siena. With its ancient red brick buildings, the scallop-shaped Piazza del Campo, and the Cathedral Square dominated by the zebra-striped Duomo, Siena is an absolute must for anyone visiting Tuscany. Essentially an open-air museum celebrating the Gothic, Siena boasts secular monuments that have preserved their medieval forms and exceptional art collections, offering plenty to marvel at.

The property is also just a few kilometres from Volterra, one of Tuscany's most dramatic hilltop towns. Despite its many attractions, Volterra sees fewer tourists than other Tuscan towns, meaning you can share its winding stone streets with locals and explore its ancient sites without crowds. Founded by the Etruscans and surrounded by medieval walls, Volterra boasts a notable historic centre filled with fascinating Roman ruins, medieval buildings, and alabaster workshops.

Lucca, known as the "city of 100 churches", is also nearby. Hidden behind impressive Renaissance walls, its cobbled streets, delightful squares, and shady promenades make it a perfect destination to explore on foot. At the end of the day, open-air cafés and historic restaurants tempt visitors to relax over a glass of Lucchese wine and a slow progression of dishes prepared with fresh produce from nearby Garfagnana.

The Property
Situated in the heart of Tuscany, just a short drive from Florence, Property 1651263718 is a Renaissance-era property surrounded by spectacular grounds. Guests can explore the lush forests, olive groves, and vineyards, or wander through the enchanting Renaissance gardens, which are dotted with ornate fountains and statues. Enclosed by ancient olive groves, this magnificent villa has been meticulously restored and features an exclusive infinity pool. The villa can accommodate up to fourteen guests in seven suites, each complete with a private bathroom.

Enclosed by seven acres of fertile land and shielded by a 15th-century stone wall, the villa boasts enchanting Renaissance gardens adorned with ornate fountains and statues. Property 1651263718 also features six spacious terraces, each offering spectacular and mesmerising views of the Tuscan countryside. The villa boasts a calm and serene atmosphere, an exclusive infinity pool, and a generous poolside area with sun loungers, inviting guests to sit back, unwind, and take in the panoramic views.

With breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape, the poolside area is an idyllic spot for soaking up the sun and enjoying moments of relaxation. The outdoor space also includes the 30 square-metre Conventino, perfect for fitness and yoga sessions, small workshops, cosy gatherings, or romantic dining. The Diana Temple, located at the end of a cypress-lined path, is ideal for an intimate ceremony, and there is a beautiful chapel for those seeking a romantic setting for their vows.

Dating back to the early 15th century, the villa has been masterfully restored, combining Renaissance architecture, ornate décor, stone fireplaces, stained-glass windows, and Florentine frescoes with luxurious modern comforts throughout. Multiple living spaces include five salons, two dining rooms, and a beautiful library. Up to 14 guests can be accommodated in the seven suites, many of which offer private living rooms. All suites feature en-suite bathrooms, most with luxurious bathtubs.

The Portrait Salon is the largest living space, featuring a custom S-shaped sofa, a period fireplace, and a beautiful frescoed ceiling. The adjacent Marble Salon is ideal for intimate dinner parties, with a corner bar and direct terrace access, while the Sacristy Room is perfect for younger guests, as it is the only room with a TV. The Medici Salon offers large armchairs overlooking a stone fireplace, and the Tower provides a secluded place to relax and enjoy the views.

The villa also includes a Coat of Arms Hall, a generous atrium with an impressive glass-domed ceiling, a first-floor loggia with dark ceilings, a family dining room, and a historic family kitchen, as well as a professional chef’s kitchen. Just steps from the villa is the Limonaia, flooded with natural light and perfect for small events and gatherings. For those seeking an intimate wedding or simply a peaceful escape to the Tuscan countryside, Property 1651263718 is the perfect location for creating lifelong memories.
