The Property
Perched on one of the most enchanting promontories overlooking the Bay of Naples, Property 1768924551 is a remarkable early 20th-century residence where timeless elegance meets modern luxury. Designed to welcome every guest, this lovingly restored villa also features one accessible suite and lift access to all the main living areas. Accommodating up to 10 guests, with 2 additional beds available (+2 extra guests), Property 1768924551 offers 5 refined suites with en-suite bathrooms and 3 floors, all connected by a private lift.

A gated driveway of approximately 180 metres winds through Mediterranean vegetation, gradually revealing the villa before opening onto a panoramic exedra with views across the Bay of Naples. Twin ceremonial staircases lead to the elegant Liberty-style veranda, adorned with exquisite three-dimensional majolica leaf decorations. Equally impressive is the panoramic roof garden, easily reached by lift, where sweeping views extend over the Sorrentine Peninsula, the Bay of Naples and the Gulf of Salerno.

Fragrant Mediterranean gardens filled with citrus trees, aromatic herbs and colourful flowers surround the villa. A charming botanical garden preserves ancient plant varieties, while the pergola-covered patio, complete with a pizza oven, barbecue and outdoor dining area, is perfect for leisurely meals. Nestled among the gardens, the swimming pool is furnished with sun loungers and day beds, and is complemented by a fully equipped pool bar with a wine refrigerator, guest facilities and direct lift access to every floor.

Inside, the living room is filled with natural light, enhanced by pale marble flooring, restored plasterwork and period architectural details, while the adjoining dining room showcases antique majolica flooring with rich colours and historic geometric patterns. Carefully curated furnishings, designer finishes, high-speed Wi-Fi, Smart TVs and air conditioning ensure every comfort. Overlooking the courtyard, the fully equipped designer kitchen pairs state-of-the-art technology with understated elegance.

The villa's wellness level offers a collection of leisure facilities. A modern gym is equipped for personalised workouts, while the intimate massage room provides a tranquil setting for holistic treatments. Adjacent to it, the Finnish sauna offers a deeply restorative experience within its natural wood interiors, while the heated indoor pool creates a serene atmosphere where light and water combine to offer moments of complete relaxation, whether for an early morning swim or an indulgent wellness ritual.

The villa features five suites, each with an en-suite bathroom. Occupying the first floor, one suite offers 54 sqm of bright, inclusive living space with a bedroom, sitting area with sofa bed for an additional guest, a spacious bathroom with double walk-in shower and Carrara marble washbasins, and direct access to a private courtyard. Its independent entrance, fully accessible layout and lift connection make it an exceptional choice for guests seeking both comfort and convenience.

On the second floor, the master suite spans 35 sqm across a bedroom and separate sitting room with a sofa bed, accommodating up to three guests. Restored blue and ochre plasterwork, decorative ceilings and a sea-view terrace create an elegant retreat. The remaining three second-floor suites each offer their own distinctive character: one boasts handcrafted Ogliara terracotta flooring, another combines restored vaulted ceilings with generous proportions, while the largest features a fireplace and a sea-view terrace.
